Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1,4,5,10,15 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kerr-6102918.

Kerr discloses in fig. 18 a repair graft 44, a guide line 110, and a suture (either thread 106, or 114) attaching the distal end of the guide line to the graft. This device is placed within a guiding catheter (broad line assembly) and after deployment, a self-expanding stent 54 (thin layer of material, about the guide line and suture) is introduced underneath the graft.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

Art Unit: 3731

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 2,6 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kerr-'918 in view of Williams, et al.-5391172.

Kerr discloses the invention as claimed with the exception of the control assembly. Williams discloses a control assembly for moving an inner tube or member relative to an outer member. It would have been obvious to have provided the control assembly of Williams to cause expulsion of the device 98 out of the guiding catheter, as it is a known mechanism for causing relative movement between coaxial members.

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kerr-'918 in view of Gould, et al.-4586923.

Kerr discloses the invention as claimed with the exception of the broad line assembly having a curved end portion.

Art Unit: 3731

Gould discloses a guiding catheter with a curved distal end controlled by a mechanism-see fig. 3-7. It would have been obvious to have provided the guiding catheter of Kerry with a control for bending the distal tip of the catheter, as taught by Gould, as this provides the catheter with a guiding means to facilitate its proper positioning within the intended surgical site.

Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kerry-'918 in view of Edwin, et al.-6039755.

Kerry discloses the invention as claimed with the exception of the layer of material being PTFE. Edwin discloses a self-expandable stent made out of PTFE. It would have been obvious to have made the stent 54 of Kerry out of PTFE, as merely an obvious design choice, as Edwin discloses such material expands with the stent skeleton and allows for tissue in-growth.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3,8,9 and 17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the rejected claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

Art Unit: 3731

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
